

I urge passage of HB5300, which will remove the trigger clause from CT's historic GMO labeling law. Our legislators recognized our right to know what is in the food we buy for ourselves and our families when the GMO labeling bill was passed in 2013. It is time for CT to finalize its commitment to transparency, integrity and truth in advertising.

Sincerely,

Debra Cohen, Wethersfield